913. Claim of Hercules Conkright, Albany Co.

Montreal Sep 28, 1787

Claimant says:

He was at Isle aux Voix in '83.

Is a native of A., lived in Albany Co., joined in '77, served ever since.

Had stock on his Father's land near Pesham Hall, 2 horses, 2 cows, 1 yearling, 4 hogs, utensils.

All these things left with his Mother when he joined the Brit. They were all sold at Vendue.

Geo. Finkle:

Knew Claimant had some stock. Knows that some were sold at Vendue.

His Mother's things &amp; his were sold too. They were sold on acct. of his joining the Brit.

Marginal note: A good man.

and secure the said Persons and forthwith bring them before this Board.

May 27, 1778.

Information was given to the Board by the Widow Baker that Lenah Cronkheydt has in her Possession a Pair of Silver Shoe Buckles and other Things her Property which was last Summer Stolen from her, and it appearing also probable that some essential Evidence might be got from her if properly examined concerning the Robberies committed in the East part of the Manor of Rensselaerwyck last Summer.

Ordered Thereupon that Capt. Ryley cause the said Lenah Cronkheydt to be apprehended and brought before us, and also to apprehend and bring before us one Mathias Kimmel to give Evidence against the said Lenah Cronkheydt.

June 19, 1778

On Suggestion to us by the Widow Baker that Lenah Cronkheydt has a Pair of Buckles the Property of the said Widow Baker which it is supposed she has taken out of the House of the said Mrs. Baker last Summer when she fled on Account of the Tories

Ordered ~~thereupon~~ that Captain John Ryley bring the said Lenah Cronkheydt before us —

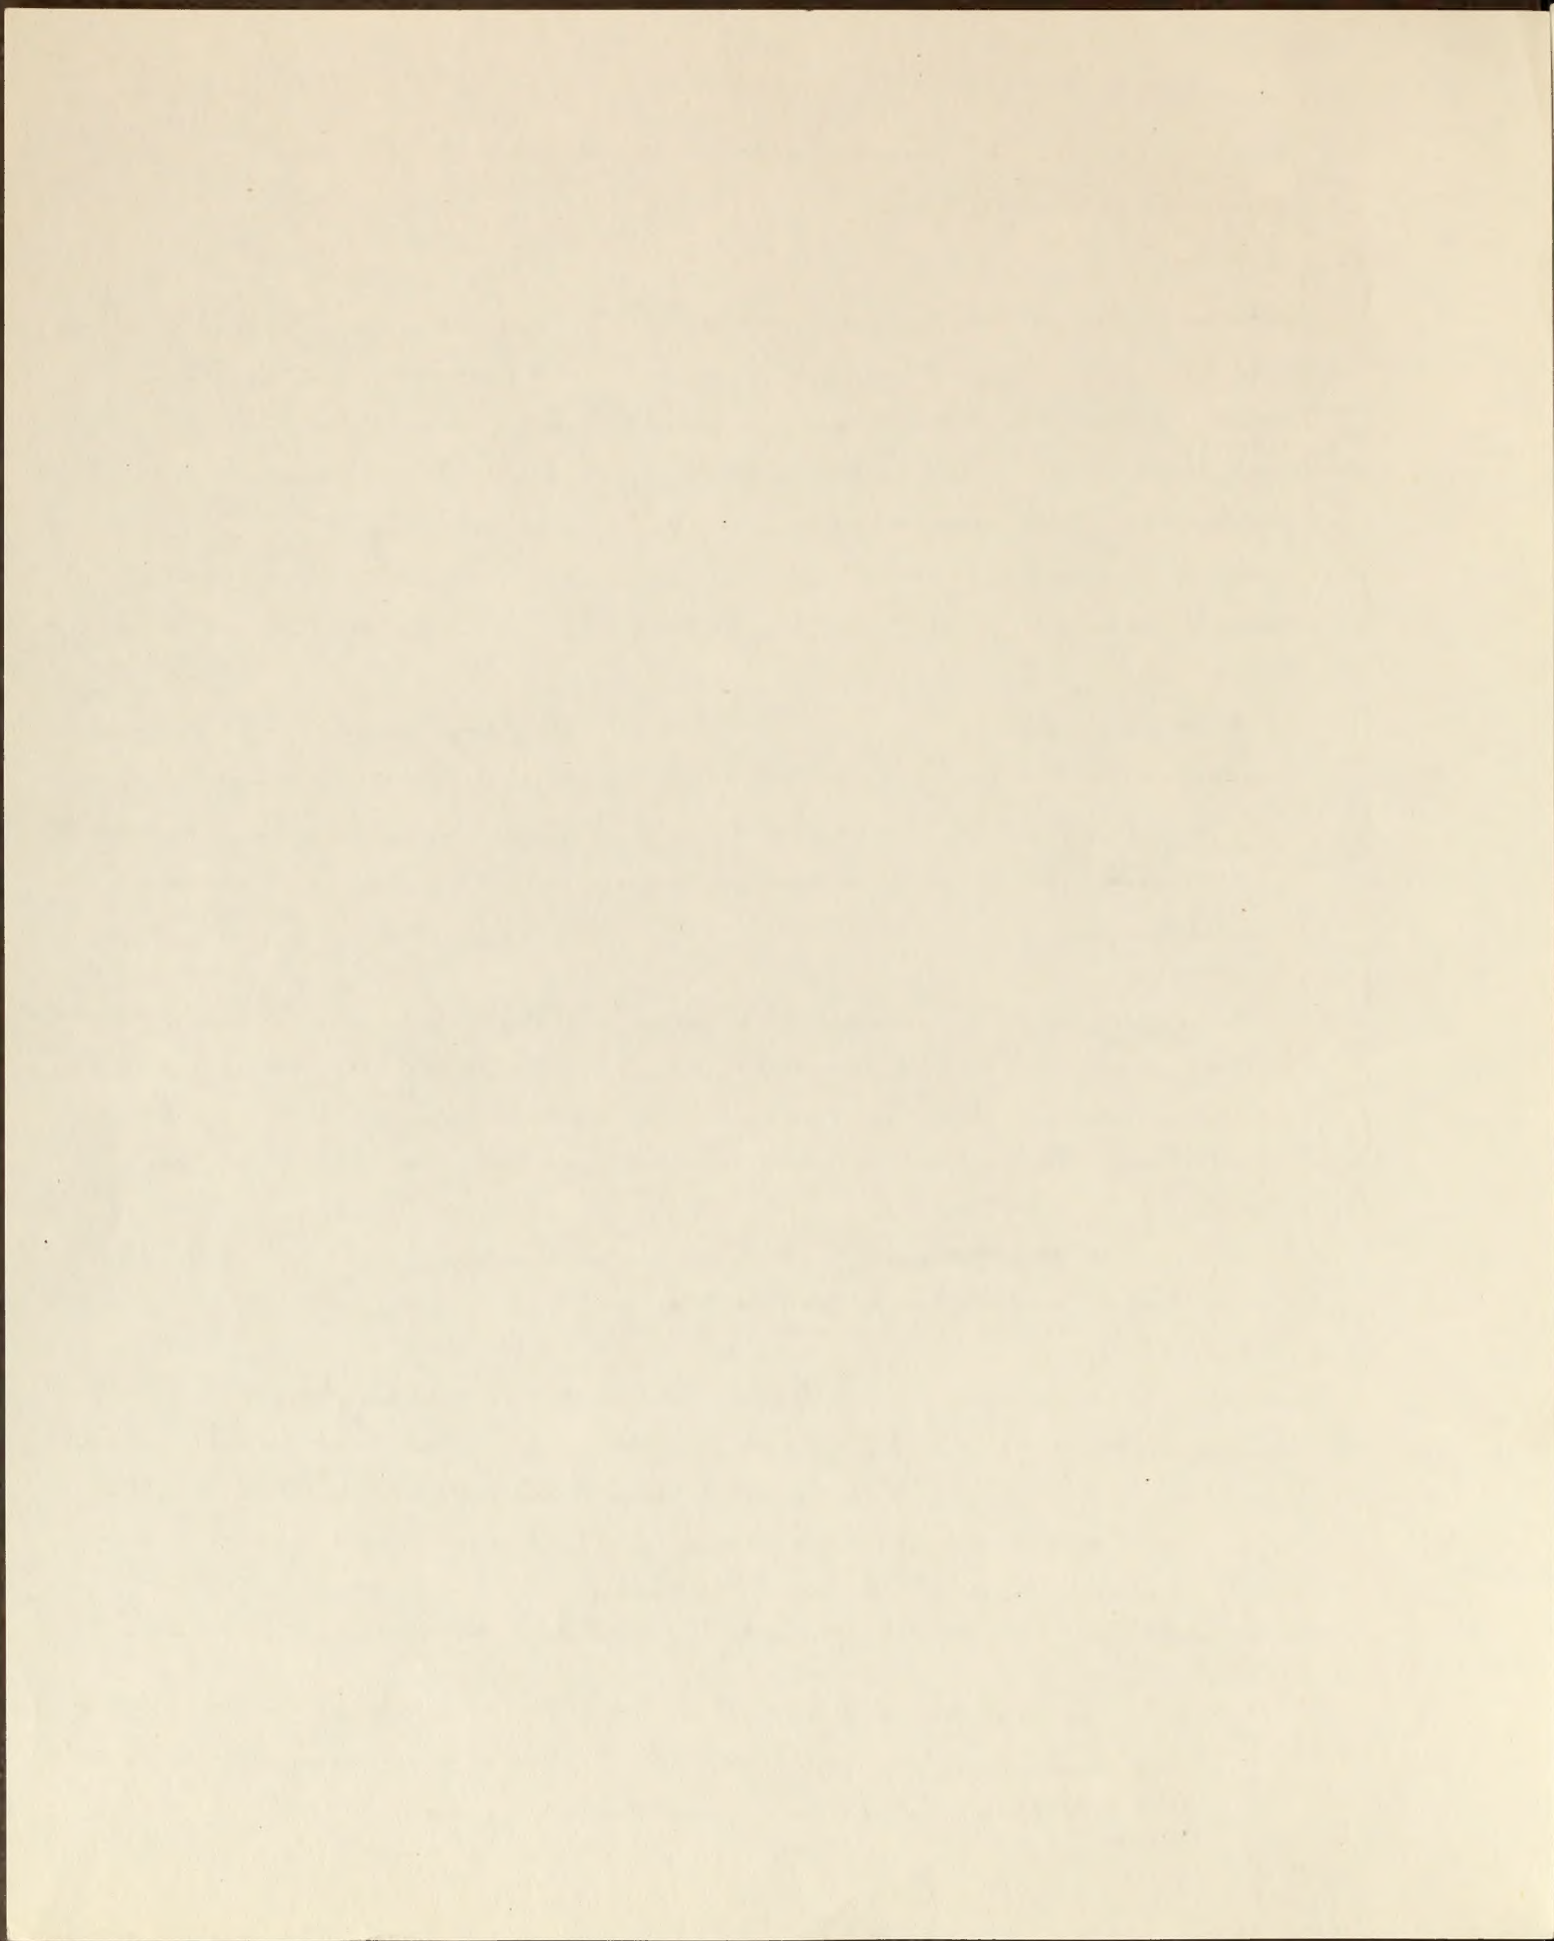

Aug. 22, 1778

Captain John Ryley and John Selon appeared before the Board with a certain Jacob Cronkheydt who last Winter made his escape from Prison and who they had apprehended in the Nine Partners and it appearing that the said Jacob Cronkheydt stands indicted for a Robbery by him committed & Ordered that the said Jacob Cronkheydt be closely confined.

Note

John Selon was paid £5 on this day for assisting in conveying "Frederick Cronkheydt" to Jail — Revolutionary Manuscripts, vol 40, p. 167, State Comptroller's Office.
